

At the Train Station

Take your child to the train station, even if you aren't going on a train journey.

You can look at the train timetables, people watch, count the trains and check they are on time. Talk about all these things with your child.

Perhaps you might plan a journey on the train.

Choo choo...