

Supporting children's communication and language

Top Tip 1

Get your child's attention- make sure they are listening.

Say their name first, get down to their level to check they are looking and listening.

